SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

14. You shall provide the supervising officer with access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of your Federal income tax returns. You shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the supervising officer. You shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset, without the advance approval of the supervising officer.
15. You shall complete a mental health evaluation and follow any treatment recommendations of the evaluating professional which do not require forced or psychotropic medication and/or inpatient confinement absent further order of the Court. You shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and treatment provider. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay.
16. You shall submit your person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You shall warn persons with whom you share a residence that the premises may be subject to search.
17. You shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated by a licensed/certified treatment provider, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, which could include inpatient treatment and aftercare. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider.
18. You shall pay all taxes and penalties for tax years 2005 through 2007, as approved by the supervising officer. Payments shall not exceed 10% of your income.
